Focus

Students listen to story using homographs and make text-to-text connections by matching selected homographs.

Activation

Introduce author Gene Barretta to students and share information about him from his website www.genebarretta.com. Explain we will be reading a book written by Gene that tells us about words that are spelled the same, but have different meanings.

Pre Reading Conversation:

- Have you ever noticed words that are spelled the same, but are pronounced differently have different meanings?
- They have a special name, do you have any idea what that name could be?
- Can you give an example of a homograph?

Post Reading Conversation:

- After reading the book, do you know any homographs?
- Did the pictures in the book help you understand homographs? How?
- Did you notice that just by saying the word syllables differently, it changes the meaning of the word?
- Do you know any homographs?

Lesson Ideas:

Matching Game-

- Prepare cards with written homographs, enough for one per student
- Create (teacher or together as a class) sentences using examples from the book that use the homographs correctly
- Read sentences, have students stand up when their homograph is read and reinforce by having students pronounce their homograph both ways

Alternate Matching Game-

- Prepare separate cards with a homograph sentence on each one using examples from the book
- Turn cards with sentence face down on table
- Students play a match game by selecting two cards, player keeps the cards if the homographs match

Illustrate Homographs-

- Pair students, give each pair a set of homographs, written on a card.
- Each student must illustrate their homographs, example:

- Students share their illustrations and classmates must figure out the homograph.
